“ O”Lord! I trust that you will give this family. The strength and comfort that only you can provide. I say unto you family. Though weeping may endure for a night. Joy will certainly come in the morning.

At times as such. Your nights may seem longer and lonely. Your days may be shorter and gloomy. Just! Keep on, keeping on because your mom, grandma, great grannie, sister or even your aunt. Wouldn't have you do things any other way. Mrs. Annie Ruth! I can reflect from my childhood on in into my adulthood. The results would be the same.

A woman of virtue. A great mother and a village leader. At times, she shared very few words. Not to be mistaken. She had a tongue that was stiff and was always readily available. To spare the rod.

If she said. Go home or get out my yard! Everybody better be grabbing onto their shoes and hoping to hear. Not you baby! Otherwise. Bye!
Only to return three to five minutes later because we'd only walk across the street. That was love .... That was love!

Scripture tells us. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord! With that being said. Rest on Queen! Rest on!
We thank you for all of the fond memories.

Family! Stay strong even at your weakest. Remember to: Keep on keeping on!
There is a village of us that genuinely love you all and are praying for you all during your time of bereavement.

Sincerely,
Lakeisha
