May her soul rest in peace now that the demons in her head are gone

On October 17th, 2020 our family lost the most beautiful soul that brought so much love and light to this world. She was just 20 years old but her soul was so much older. She loved the outdoors; hiking, boating, beaches, etc. Her pets were her world:

Dogs: Miley & Bella

Cats: Jack & Luna

Fish: Bean, Swim Shady & Goldie

Bunny: Odin-deceased in 2018

She had a heart of gold and dropped everything to help anyone, even if she didn't know them. She had a very special relationship with her mom Jeannie and her dad Ken that most didn't even realize. She was a very private person and most did not know she didn't share as much as people thought. Her bond with her sister Arielle was like no other. She had a loving relationship with her sister Calysta and loved playing Minecraft with her brother Mikey. She enjoyed teaching both kids how to play virtual games with Oculus. Her heart held a special place for her grandmother, aunts and cousins alike. She was truly a family girl. Our family is thankful to have traveled and spent so much time enjoying our time together.

Mental health issues are a growing problem in the country among this age group. While we all were here for her, sadly we all could not prevent this tragedy. She searched for answers every day. But in the end her anxiety and demons in her head won. I do hope the world continues to search for solutions to help our young population so we can save more kids. If you are thinking about suicide, please remember there are so many who are ready so support and help. Love and Light

Celebrations of her life will be held in Florida and Virginia- Dates and times are still being worked out and are pending. Details will be shared via Facebook.

“ She was such a beautiful girl and was always the light in my darkest times, no matter what she was there for every one around her. I miss her everyday and just remember all the times we had together, if it it was in the car driving or coloring she was always a supportive person.

“ I remember how flattered I was when you bought one of my art portraits. I remember you at cheesecake and how much I always told you how you reminded me of my sister. You're beautiful. Thanks for being genuine. Love is forever.

“ Ari, there hasn't been a day that my heart doesn't ache for you. I miss you so much. Thank you for all the help making me a better person, I just wish you were still here with me. I really don't know what to do without you anymore. The days just all blend together now. I love you always and forever...

“ I was lucky to teach Ari for several years when she was in high school. She is unforgettable. She was always very brave, creative, and empathetic. Ari would always do what she felt was right and moral. She was passionately outspoken against those she felt were doing wrong, and she would stand up for those she felt had less of a voice. She often talked about how important her family was to her. The world misses a lot by losing her.

“ Ariana has a sense of humor that was special, her simple gestures and thoughtful attentiveness to things that most people overlook never failed to display not only her intelligence, deeper understanding of the world around her, and her care and interest in others. Having her as a classmate and coworker at Bonefish is something I was better off for. I enjoyed that our conversations could switch from cartoons to philosophy in an instance. She will be missed, but to the people that she touched, I know that she will remain in our hearts and live and experience life and love through us forever.

“ Ariana and I shared a lot of memories (and a name... spelt differently, of course) in elementary school and middle school before she moved away. We were best friends! She and her family treated me so well and gave me a childhood to remember. I remember her and her family took me on a boat for the first time where we went tubing, we went to the state fair and to our first Big Time Rush concert, I also remember playing My Littlest Pet Shop with her at, like, 2 in the morning at her house where I slept over almost every other weekend. She and Ken taught me how to ride a bike, even gave me the blue bike! There were so many memories we had and I cherish them all. While we had each other on Facebook, I'm sorry we didn't communicate more. I miss you and thank you for giving me the best childhood a kid could've asked for. Your drawing is still up on my wall, even after all these years. Rest easy, Ari.

“ Her and I were friends throughout high school, I had gone to many parties and hang outs she held. She even let me go on her boat with her family one Memorial Day. It breaks my heart knowing I lost someone I hadn't kept in touch with, but I understand what it's like to battle with demons. All through high school she provided me with friendship, and solidarity knowing that I could truly be myself around her and she wouldn't have judged. The heavens have claimed another angel, but to everyone who sees this just think she'll be up there shining brightly with the stars. God bless to you Ariana, and to her family who treated me with the same care she did all those years ago.

“ she was so kind to me in the classes that we had together and helped me get through some hard times freshman year. I will always remember the kindness she showed me, I'm thinking of her and her family <3

“ I am so very sorry to hear of this; I will pray for her and her family. I taught Arianna in English 9 and remember her very well. She always treated me respectfully and kindly. She also continued to speak to me and tell me hello in the hallways after she left my class. This is very heartbreaking, and I am so, so sorry. My thoughts and prayers are with all of her family and friends.

“ Me and ariana were close for a time in middle school and one of my favorite memories is one of the many days we were running around her neighborhood just singing and talking and laughing. I remember it was a beautiful day outside and I convinced her to go for a walk. She was an amazing person and friend and i was blessed to know her for the time I did

“ i didn't talk too much in high school, but she always made an effort to speak to me. i'll never forget at the end of junior year she asked for my snapchat. i was so happy bc someone wanted to keep in touch. we had birthdays a day apart too! she was such a bright, friendly soul and i won't forget her.

thank you for being so wonderful.

“ She had a soul that was always looking to help others. I remember her sharing her story with me during the friendship we had prior to me switching high schools. It's tragic she is gone so soon.

“ Ariana you will be greatly missed. Beautiful Angel R.I.P

Angelika - October 22, 2020 at 06:19 PM

“ We had the best Thanksgivings and Christmases. One Thanksgiving, her make up skills made for the funniest story, although Jeannie may not have agreed

Trista Reiser Nerich - October 22, 2020 at 04:57 PM

“ There are a million memories the flood mine and soul. She was a gift to us all the day she was born. Holding her as a baby and every year she grew into a beautiful soul. Her shine was bright. I could always feel her love and huge heart that came naturally when you were with her. She and her whole family are my family. Our families hearts are heavy but she will always live in our hearts and memories to keep her alive. I love you Ariana and wish we had more time. I will talk to you soon, see you in a dream. Love and light forever. I am truly sorry for not reaching out these last few years. My heart is with yours

“ I will miss you my sweet cousin!..xoxo

Lorraine - October 22, 2020 at 01:52 PM

“ Ariana was my closest cousin. We were the youngest out of everyone in the family and that just brought us so much closer. I remember so many nights of us playing at the house. She was my only cousin I felt safe talking to about anything. I wish I could of done something, anything to keep you here. I love you so much Ari, take care of Adalyn for me, until we meet again.

“ My deepest condolences. So young and my daughters childhood friend. They played together and even went to dance classes together. Still have that video which will be sad to watch.
