

Deborah Lynnette Davidson

September 17, 1954 - May 2, 2020

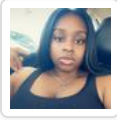

Deborah L. Davidson, 65, passed away with her family and friends by her side at her Orlando home on Saturday, May 2, 2020. She was born in Chicago, IL on September 17, 1954 beloved daughter of Juanita (Harris) Dill of Chicago and the late Jimmy Dill Sr.

Deborah was the caring and devoted wife of Melvin Davidson, Jr., loving mother of Robert and Joseph Myricks and Teresa Richardson whom was able to travel and be by her Mother's side. Beloved sister of Audrey, Jimmy, Robert "Bobby" Dill, and the late Donald Dill. Cherished grandmother of 12 grandchildren and 6 great grandchildren. And faithful friend to many.

Deborah loved God. She always had a uplifting song her heart. She loved volunteering at church and other community events for those in need. Her gift was to look for the good in people and work to leave them better than the way she found them. Her love and compassion will be remembered forever... along with her smile and favorite any time of day phrase, "Good morning!"

Known as a woman with a very big heart she was a loving wife, mother, daughter, sister and friend that will be sadly missed by all. There are currently no services scheduled in Orlando. The family will schedule a service in Chicago at a later date.

“ Our love and condolences go out to the family. She will be greatly missed. Heaven has gained an angel. Deborah was beautiful inside and out. She has blessed pastor Dave and I with her love and an infectious smile that could light up any room. She brought joy to many while a member at United Community Brethern Church in Dayton Ohio. What a gift it has been to have known her. Never Forgotten

Blessings and love,
The Foxx Family
