“ My deepest condolence for the loss of your dear loved one. ‘Mr. Browne’ no doubt was a shining light in your life. In the midst of your grief please talk, write and most of all pray about your thoughts and feelings(never underestimate the power of prayer), these steps can help you to organize the mental clutter that accumulates from sadness and grief. The Bible says that if you pray about your concerns, ‘the peace of God that excels all thought will guard your heart and your mental powers.’—
Philippians 4:7.

“ Dennis were classmates at the Charlestown Secondary School in Nevis, leeward Islands. We were very good friends because he was always a very pleasant person. We caught up by telephone a few years ago and was able to swap stories about our lives since high school days. He told me he was sick recently but was getting better. Was shocked to hear that he had passed away. May his soul find favor with his higher power. R.I.P Dennis. I can never forget you my friend.

“ Dad this is your first son, Dennis Browne Jr. I just wanted you to know how much I love you and miss hearing the sound of your voice. I know you are with the lord and he will take care of you like he always has. We are going to be strong for you. You are the best father I could ever have been blessed with. The way you lived your life sets an example for the way I plan to live mines, putting god first. Whatever success I have in life it's because of you and everything you instill in me. Love you always dad.

“ My name is Earl Smithen originally of Craddock Road , Charlestown Nevis now residing in St Kitts. I last worked at the ECCB for 33 years but retired recently. Dennis and I were schoolmates at the Charlestown Boys School and later at the Charlestown Secondary School. I last saw him in the mid 70s and always wondered which part of the world he was. I had hoped that we would run into each other sooner rather than later. Thus I am deeply saddened on hearing of his demise. I do have very fond memories of interacting with Dennis who was always easy going and a very warm and friendly person . He was a very humble soul with a very warm personality. I would like to extend my sincerest condolences to his family and friends. May his soul rest in eternal peace. Earl Smithen
