

Landelino Morales Vazquez

July 10, 1934 - December 12, 2016

Our dad was born July 10, 1934, native of San Juan Puerto Rico moved to Brooklyn New York in the early 60'S...his parents were Jorge Morales and Petra Vazquez, he had 8 siblings and they were all very close. I remember in our family gatherings they played dominoes, chinese checkers and cards. Our dad had 8 children, 3 daughters and 5 sons. He leaves behind 27 grandchildren and 22 great grandchildren. Unfortunately they will not get to see the remarkable man that our dad was. He enjoyed fishing, loved to sing and watch baseball, his favorite team was the Mets. He also liked going to the race track, and took us with him. He liked western and horror movies and we cannot forget his novelas. His favorite actors were Boris Karloff, Vincent Price, Clint Eastwood and Charles Bronson (there were others but I would be here all day writing).

He loved to listen to music, and he was an amazing singer, he will be most remembered for his amazing voice. He sang exactly the same as Felipe Rodriguez, one of his idols. We are thankful to our Lord for giving us 82 years of love, laughter, comfort and joy. He was a wonderful dad, grandfather, brother and friend.

You will NEVER be forgotten...You will FOREVER continue to live in our memories and hearts. This is not good bye; this is until we meet again...

“ My family would like to send sincere condolences to the Vasquez family for the loss of your dear loved one. May you find comfort and hope from the Bible promise at Isaiah 25:8. Pray constantly, avoid isolation, and lean on God as you cope during this most difficult time.
