

Virginia Ibertis

August 1, 1924 - August 18, 2020

Virginia Ibertis was born in 1924, to two wonderful parents and a loving older sister. She met her husband, Eugenio, when they were kids and they grew up just down the street from each other in their small town of Moncalvo, Italy.

Virginia emigrated to Venezuela from Italy in 1950 with her young son Giovanni, following her husband who had emigrated a few years prior. They were eager to start a new life after the devastation World War II brought to their native Italy.

After a few years living in Venezuela, Virginia and husband welcomed a second son, Pablo, and the family was now complete. With hard work, good family principles, and discipline, Virginia and her family thrived in the new home country, developing one of the highest producing and sought-after cattle farms in the region.

After 30 years in Venezuela, the family decided to uproot itself once again due to economic and political instability and make a new home in Florida. Virginia's brave spirit and courage helped her and her family push forward in times of uncertainty, all the while providing constant love and affection to all who knew her. As her grandkids would say "Even at 96, she was smart, stubborn, and never took no for an answer...that was our Nonna!"

“ My sincere condolences to the Ibertis Family. Once again my heart hurts to know that another loved one has passed away. I will always remember Virginia for how loving and caring she was to my family. I always enjoyed speaking to her at family gatherings. Virginia may you rest in peace with the Lord and know that you will always be remembered. Love Eddie, Angela, Gregory and Adrian.

“ My happiest memories are of the time I spent at my Nonna's house throughout my life. She lived an amazing life, and I am happy that she is now with the Lord. I am glad I was able to have her as my Nonna, and I will love her forever.

“ Growing up, Nonna always made the best pasta and turkey meatballs for my cousins and I. I will miss stopping by nonna's house for a quick bite or a glass of wine and being told old stories of her and nonno. I will miss her dearly and always love her.

“ Querida Mina y Nonna: muchas decadas hemos pasado juntos y ahora sigo pensando que te voy a llevar tu sopa de vegetales que tanto apreciabas y que, como de costumbre, me vas a llamar a las seis de la tarde para darnos las buenas noches. Guardaremos de ti una inmensidad de recuerdos amorosos y seguiras en nuestra mente como si estuvieras presente en nuestra vida diaria. Nos da aliento pensar que ya no sufres y que estas con tu querido esposo Palino y en la incomparable Paz y Felicidad del Creador. Ti vogliamo un mondo di bene e sarai sempre la nostra Mina.
