“ I spent 30 years working with and around Abdul at Lockheed Martin. He was always a joy to be around and even when things were at their worst, Abdul would have a smile and something positive to say. I always felt better after talking to Abdul or just seeing him smile. He will be missed, but always remembered fondly by myself and all who worked with him.
May God bless his family and be with them during their loss. We who are left behind are saddened because we will miss him, and that is ok.
I am completely joyful for Abdul as he is no longer troubled by our imperfect world, but now is with God and past all earthly concerns. Thank you Lord, for giving us the gift of Abdulrahman Rasheed.
