“ Dear Mrs. Brown,
You "WERE" my 2nd Mother. I never needed an invitation to ANYTHING family. Never had to ring your doorbell or knock to enter your home. When it was time for all company to leave, that did not include me. I "ALWAYS" had a Christmas present under your tree. I "ALWAYS" had a plate saved whenever you cooked. You were privy to my personal business and I was included in family business. You always allowed me to have an opinion in everything that was FAMILY. i know that you know that if it was in my control that I would be there. I also know that you know how much I love you because I never hesitated to tell you and your response was always "I Love You More". Please rest easy and know that you will be forever missed, forever loved, and forever remembered.

Love,

Your Other Daughter, Val
