I met Alejo through a dear friend of mine, Valerie Smith. Alejo was never a stranger, it was as though I'd known him for years. Not only was he a friend to me, but he took to my oldest grandson Jarelle, he treated him as if he were his own grandson. I'll never forget how kind and caring he was. I'm glad that I had the privilege of being in his life. Rest In Peace Alejo. With much love. Elaine Mosley
