“ Dad. I love you and miss you so much. I cant imagine the summer or holidays without you

You were the one that always told me how proud of me you were. Even when you weren't sure what i was doing, or why, you would hope for the best and never judge

When i went through crap with nypd, you ran to be there for me. When tony and i thought about moving to florida, you came with us. We had a super great time in florida with you. Dinners, shows, downtown disney, boats, golf, and much more.

I felt like i saw you be reborn here in florida and im soooo happy and grateful that you tony and i did it when we did

Thanx to you, our lives grew here. We all took care of each other. Including a year later when we convinced ann and the kids to move here. You were okay with losing you hang out room so they can stay with us.

You were always putting us all first, as much as you can. And we all love and appreciate it

I was so close to you and have so many memories. You coaching my softball teams for many years etc

Tony was very close to you as well, and looked to you as his own dad, and i believe you looked at him as a son.

We will miss you forever and will carry on your beliefs, jokes, memories and teachings.

You looked very peaceful at the viewing ceremony, and i think helped us know you are at peace. I hope you can still contact me in my dreams etc.

I know you are not suffering anymore, and i know you have to be okay. Aunt kim and fran said for me to look for hints that you are still around. Which i will.

I think you already played a joke on me. When we got home from the viewing, 1 of my dogs pooped all over the living room. Lol

I hope you can do fun things in heaven. I dreamed last night that you were surfing. Put a smile on my face. Because im believing you must be okay and in a better place.

I love you dearly. I will miss you forever. Hopefully ill see you again one day.

“Despite the booming voice and tough New York exterior, you had a way of making everyone feel welcome, and an integral part of whatever was going on. The stern look when someone did something wrong was always quickly replaced with a wisecrack and a smile. And always with the nick names "Vince" or "Fraggle" among others! You had a gift of making everyone around you strive to do better. I am glad to have known you, and honored to have you as friend.

“ My father as everyone knows was a lot of people wrapped into one. A father a grandfather a friend and some unmentionables 😊 but everytime we talked first thing he asked was about mikey , my son his grandson . I can guarantee not a day will pass that u won't be in my thoughts. Mikey's greatest thrill was u have same name as batmans butler, for better or worse u left a legacy your kids and grandkids and all your family you know who you are that will last forever and we love you for that . PS tell Jayme we miss him and u guys start a new bowling team

“ Al, or as we call him, Goon, you were always the first one to smile or laugh at any situation. Your good humor, your good spirit, and your genuine hugs are some of the things that I will always remember about you. You will be missed by your family, friends, and everyone that knew you. That is something we all strive to achieve. RIP.

“ Hey "goone" or as my cell phone would say every time you called " what do you want" it's taking me along time to find what to say to you . You treated me like a son for so many years and I will never ever forgot that . I promise you I will take care of your daughter Nicole and we both will miss you more then ever . As well as the promises I made to you in your last days . I have brought you to the hospital and picked you up so many times and lied to myself believing this was going to run the same way . We were all there as you would have wanted in your last hours and we will all stay that way for the rest of our lives as a family . I know you were very big on that . You always wanted anyone and everyone to come for the holidays and we always had fun . I have so many memories with you from the day you found out 9 years ago me and your daughter were dating .ibfeel like we almost did everything from sporting events , casinos , golfing , fishing , holidays and so much more . The things I'll always remember with you besides being the best father and grandfather you could be is , you taking a bite out of a wooden merry Christmas decoration just because you swore it was because it came in a box that said candy . How crazy we made you switching cell phone plans . How much you loved Mushie and always would yell "get that dog off my bed" but mush gave you the look . How you loved to have your toys at the pool like the noodles. The nights we would all go to downtown Disney so you could get ice cream and watch the bands . How much you told me is was a horrible fisherman and if I try to explain why you would tell me the worlds smallest violin. The way you would drive scared me and probably all of us but you would whistle and if you looked right you drive right and looked left you would drive left , no matter what whoever honked at you , you would say where did they get a licence . The way you thought the i 4 would bring you everywhere in Florida . The way you would always order me coffee , water and a hamburger anywhere we went . Of course calling me "spike" and then "crash" because of my car accidents . Your little Christmas tree that was part of a medical oxygen pump that you put up every year and said all done decorating . The way you would always say "nah I am not hungry but can you bring me " whatever food you wanted at the time . Your constant jokes that made everyone around you always feel at home . And your love for scratch offs and sports even up to your final hours . Just so you know the scratch offs that I got you that you could not find in the hospital Nikki scratched with you after you past away and you won $20.00. I am going to miss you and it's been real hard not to show emotion and stay strong like you asked me to do and keep Nikki ok . But it's hard and I miss you . I always thought you would come home and I cant understand why I can't pick you up from the hospital one more time . I will miss you so so much I'll always love you old man . And I learned a lot from you . Me and Nikki stayed strong because of you and we will continue that and all of us will stay a strong family as you always wanted . I will see you again one day until then watch over your family from above .

“ I remember many times Al would pace the floors worrying about the kids or a neighbor's child. He loved baseball and when he was unable to play like he wanted to...he coached many little leagues of baseball and softball. He is scheduled to coach and umpire in baseball heaven. He will be sorely missed on Earth!

“ You looked out for me like a second father. Always having room for me to tag along to Nikki's tournaments with my own fold out chair next to yours, or even let me sleep in the car when she had double headers . You teased me to no end and until this day I really believe I am a blonde midget. You took me to my first mets game and are my favorite person to root for the jets with. You big goon I will miss you and always have the brightest memories of you to share. Love your adopted daughter ❤️

“ I remember when I first met AL. I was petrified. Not only cause he was a big man but also because I was dating his daughter at the time. But when I finally met him he was such a great guy and had a heart of gold. He welcomed me into his family like I was one of his own. I'm upset we lost contact but the first time I saw him when he moved to Florida it was like we never did. You will be dearly missed. Rest in Paradise Al.
