He moved to Orlando, Florida at a young age and attended the Orange County Public Schools, graduating from Jones High School in 1964. After a short battle with cancer, he peacefully went home to be with the Lord on Sunday January 3, 2016, at home with his loving family.

He is predeceased by his parents Eddie Lee Felder and Minnie L. Williams Felder-Rivers, two sons; Sean K. Watlington, Shelly (Willie boy) Davis, four brothers; Joe L. Jordan; a host of grandchildren, great children, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Fats was a realist, he kept it real and never judging or criticizing you. He would always try to give his best advice....and never sugarcoated. He was the kind of person that made you feel like it was okay to be you. His kind heart and beautiful spirit will be greatly missed. Fats also had a love for children and dogs.

“ To the Felder Family,

The pain of celebrating the loss of a love one can not be put into words. I forward my sincere prayers and sorrow for your loss. Like all who EVER came into contact with "fats" I can say he was someone you could believe in and be assured that his advise would be genuine. He will be truly missed.

Daddy you will be deeply missed and the last few months that we spent together, yet were tiring but I wouldn't have did it any different if given another opportunity. It was a pleasure to see the happiness and joy as you often expressed of being here with us and having unconditional love and caring in the last days of your life. I love you and will miss you but glad to see you are not suffering anymore. RIP the love which we watch the two of you show to Uncle Fats and his children during this difficult season was heart warming and well pleasing to the LORD. The two of you are a beacon of light to the Felder family. Continue to be steadfast in prayer and obedience to the LORD who is your Comforter and Great High Priest.

*Mom and Uncle Charles,
We love you both and are honored to call you Mom and Uncle Charles.
Blessings,
Spencer and Linnette Felder*
