

Alvestico DeMargo Fountain II

June 20, 1985 - October 29, 2022

Alvestico DeMargo Fountain II 37. Born in Bridgeport, Connecticut on June 20, 1985.

He is survived by both his parents Alvestico D. Fountain I, Rashmi Soto and his Stepfather Ferdinand Soto, Brother Hiten J. Fountain, Sister-in-law Chrissy Fountain, Nieces Makayla, Isabella & Sofia. He is also survived by many Aunts, Uncles, and Cousins.

He loved playing basketball throughout middle & high school. From a very young age he had a passion for sports cars, basketball and biking. He had so much love for all his family and loved being around them. He was a great friend to all who knew him.

The family invites you to leave a message of condolence on the tribute wall created in his memory.

Al's mother Rashmi would like to request everyone's presence at Faith Assembly for the service and worship.

“ I’m so sorry for your loss. Me and Al had our good times and bad, he used to make me so mad that he loved his “wine”, and I always told him it was gonna be his downfall. Gonna miss you bro. Saw you in Jail, worked with you, everything! I know his cousin probably took it hard. He was a good guy with a lot of gorillas on his back.

“ I loved you from the first day I held you in my arms the day you were born. I am so heartbroken to know that I will never hear you say mom I love you, I will miss your phone calls and especially your hugs. I know you are in Heaven rejoicing with our father, until we reunite again I will always carry a broken heart of missing you everyday. 🙏 I Love You Forever Mom ❤️ 😊

My deepest condolences to Rashmi, my brother Alvestico Fountain & the entire family, I will certainly miss my nephew he was a sweet compassionate person and always willing to give a helping hand. So today we mourn because he will be missed dearly, but our memories of him will last a lifetime. From the desk of the Matriarch of The Fountain Family
