“ My condolences to the family of Mr. Aponte, I am very sorry to hear about your loss. In this trying time, May you find comfort in God's Word the Bible, as you draw ever closer to our Heavenly Father Jehovah God. Your love ones ARE asleep. Add Acts 24:15 there is going to be a "resurrection hope". As God's Word the Bible speaks of a time when you will and can see your love ones once again. Forever on a Paradise Earth! My condolences, peace and blessings, my deepest sympathy. Jas.4:8, 2Thess.2:16,17, Psm.34:18

“ To the Aponte family, My heart hurts for you all. My family is shocked and saddened by the news. The pain of losing a child, a brother, an uncle is not easy; but I pray to God to give you all the strength you need to move forward.

Alvin what can I say.. You will be greatly missed; your upbeat personality never to be forgotten. The memories of our early childhood years living on Allen street as neighbors; always playing in the hallway will never be forgotten. Until the day you all left to Florida we remained friends. I am happy to have known you and your family. You will never be forgotten my Friend. You will always be in our hearts and memories.

Love always, Wanda & family

“ To the family and friends of Mr. Aponte. We don't know each other personally, but I wanted to let you know that I am deeply sorry for your lost. It is a tragedy to lose a loved one in death. I know that he will be deeply missed. However, I would like to share something with you that might offer some comfort. The Bible mentions that not only will God help you through this situation, but it also helps us to appreciate that we will have the opportunity to see our lost loved ones again. Read Psalms 34:18 and also John 5:28,29.

I hope these scriptures can provide a sense of comfort for you and your family. All of you in my prayers...

“ To the friends and family, I am truly sorry for your loss. Our Creator has provided comfort in such difficult times because he promises a resurrection of all those in the memorial tombs...John 5: 28,29. At that time, no resident will say "I am sick"...Isaiah 3:24, mourning, pain, and even death will be no more....Rev 21:4. Until then, hold on to your precious memories and prepare to greet him when this time comes.

“ My dearest sweet gentle giant cousin. I will miss you dearly. I remember as children you were too cute and had a mischievous laughter. As we lovingly called you Pompi, you loved to play and laugh. In the later years you became an uncle proud of his two sweet nephews that I have claim my own. Our last phone conversation you called to check on them while the were on vacation with me. You were thankful I was spending time with them and ask I consider leaving early due to an approaching storm heading my way. Your last post to me on fb you complimented my latest art master piece. I enjoy reading your sports commentary. I will miss your sweet gentle spirit. I find comfort you have won the good fight and your reward is grand! I know you have gained your crown and a new heavenly home with those who have gone before us like our grandparents and uncle Junior. You will be in my heart and memories. Until we meet again my precious cousin Alvin! Love you.
