“ Dearest Family,

This is a poem I wrote when Mandy left Endeavor. I forgot that I wrote it. I'm not a poet, but, she was an inspiration. She would do that to you. I think it says a lot about who she was to many. I've been out of touch in the past few years, but I don't think she will mind that I share it now. My sincerest sympathy for all of you. She loved you all so much! Kathy Perez

Believe

*Believe that certain people come into your life for a reason.
They are a gift.
They have come to give you new perspective.
They have come to enlighten you, breathe new life into you, lift you up when you need it.
All the while, telling you how great you already are.*

*They dare you to try new things, overcome your fears.
They know just how to open your mind to new ways of thinking;
They have come to make you reflect, consider the possibilities.
They encourage you to believe you can get through whatever is put before you.*

*They do all of this and more,
maybe not even realizing that this is what they do for those they touch.
Even though this gift may be for meant for many,
you feel it has been just for you.*

*This can be none other than a GREAT FRIEND,
Which is always what you will be to me.
So, as YOUR FRIEND, I wish you well.
This is not an ending, but simply a new beginning for you and for me, where you have the opportunity to do the same for others you are* *meant to touch

and I have the opportunity to pass it on.*

You know you are loved and I will miss you, but I'm going to see you again, when we retire!
