

Amy Sue Repasky

June 25, 1958 - November 5, 2018

Amy Sue Repasky, 60, formerly of Michigan City passed away on Monday, Nov. 5, in Orlando, Florida.

Amy was born on Jun. 25, 1958, in Michigan City, Indiana, to John Calvin and Angeline Alma (Baker) Eis.

Amy graduated from Rogers High School in 1976. After graduation, she went on to earn both her barber and beautician's licenses. In addition, Amy was a part-time chef extraordinaire. In 1987, she married the love of her life, Tim Repasky.

Amy had an effervescent spirit that attracted strangers – both people and animals – and instantly turned them into friends. She had a caring heart and loved her family fiercely. Her love and caring for others seasoned everything she touched – from the gourmet meals she made to the haircuts she gave to family and friends. Even after death, a part of her spunk and zest for life will live on in the lives of each person she leaves behind.

Amy is survived by her husband of 31 years, Tim Repasky; her father, John Eis; her sisters, Vicki Eis, Julie Eis, Lisa (Roger) Belue; her mother-in-law, Nadine Repasky; brother-in-law, Mark (Terri) Repasky; sister-in-law Suzan (David) Lewis; her nieces and nephews, Matthew (Jessy) Belue, Meghan

(Kevin) Friedman, Dakota Lewis, Jason Lewis, Dylan Repasky, Tanner Repasky and Jordana Taylor; and five great-nieces and nephews. Her special aunt, Dorothy Gerken, also survives her.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Angeline.

A celebration of life will be held on Tuesday, Nov. 13 at 10am at St. Stephen Lutheran Church in Longwood, FL.

In lieu of flowers, please make a donation in Amy's name to Cornerstone Hospice Foundation at Orlando Health (2445 Lane Park Road, Tavares, FL 32778).
