“ The one thing I remember about Tata was her unforgettable smile. She truly had the most unique smile out of the everyday person. She also cared deeply about her family, when my abuela was sad, she would do her best to comfort her. I also remember Tata for her kindness. I miss you Tata! Love your great nephew Aaden 🌹🙏💙

“ My Tata(aunt) Ana was truly a beautiful soul inside and out. She loved her family so much, and adored her husband Antonio. As her niece, I enjoyed every summer as a child, visiting her from Boston, and staying with her almost the entire summer!! She treated me just like one of her own children, and I adored her just like another mom. I always thought of Florida as my second home, because of my Tata Ana, and she truly made it feel that way for me.. She will forever be part of me, and all the amazing memories we shared together. I will miss her immensely, and I don't ever think Florida will be the same for me without her there. I love you Tata, always,. Thank you for your endless love to me, and to Aaden. We love you, we will keep you in our hearts always, and someday, I know we will be reunited. Te amo Tata siempre! Linda 📄🙏🌹👩🏻
