“ My beautiful, dear friend, I miss everything about you. We celebrated so many moments of joy together throughout our friendship. We watched our families grow over the years - sharing stories, videos and photos of the people that mean the most to us in life. I was always so excited to show you the latest pictures of Wyatt and Cassidy. And whenever you shared a story or pic of the girls, your smile said it all. We were also there for each other in life's hardest moments, and in the last several years there were many of those. I will always remember one of our last moments together. I walked up to you and told you that my cousin's kidney transplant was successful and we cried happy tears and held each other for a long time. How can you be gone from this world that you made better just by being in it? Your friendship was a true gift and I will be forever grateful for it. Now, your light will shine where your smile used to be. You have joined what I believe is an Army of Angels and I know your generous, kind and loving spirit will always be with me. Peace and love, Debbie

Dearest Andrea, this is Aunt Marsha.....I know 1500 miles away I will never get to hug you again. Forgive me for saying it will be alright when we spoke. I know right now God is saying, what did you say? You are so soft spoken and sweet that they can't hear you in Heaven so speak up dear. I am sure you are putting things in order there. That's just you. I promise I will take care of Shawn and the girls for you hon. I can't imagine it. I am trying to be strong for Shawn and the girls but it is hard for me. I am sending Greg down to represent us there. I talk to you all the time not sure you are hearing me. But know I love you so much. You are in heaven, I am sure you have wings already. God knows his angels. By for now sweet girl. Love, Aunt Marsha and Uncle Tom.
