

Andrew Louis Murray

February 5, 1991 - December 19, 2016

Andrew Louis Murray, 25, went to be with Jesus on December 19, 2016. Born in Orlando, Andrew treasured his family and was a selfless, caring and accepting helper to all who crossed his path. With such a pure and giving heart, and a smile and chuckle that would brighten your day, conversations with Andrew were always memorable. He was an avid fisherman, whether in the lakes of Florida or the trout streams of Blooming Grove Pennsylvania. He would hook the fish others swore were uncatchable. The perseverance that Andrew held, no matter the situation, is admirable and far greater than most. This perseverance, combined with his dedication to his faith, truly makes Andrew a unique and worthy man of God.

He is survived by his loving parents Louis Jr. and Linda Murray, his brother Benjamin and sister Christine. He will also be missed by uncles John, Tom, Steven and Fred and aunts Joellen, Mary Rose, and Jennifer as well as his many cousins and friends. His grandmother Noel Adams will always hold a special place in her heart for Andrew.

A memorial gift in lieu of flowers can be sent to the Greater Orlando Chapter of NAMI at namigo.org/about-nami-greater-orlando.

“ Although I have never met Andrew, my friend Chi and I spoke of him over the past few years. I always enjoyed the stories, especially when Andrew was doing well. But, our Lord wanted him so how can we argue that? God bless you Chi, your children and the rest of the family during this rough time. I will continue to lift all of you up in prayer.

*Blessings,
Jeanne Boland*

“ We have truly fond memories of knowing Andrew in his elementary years during our homeschooling times with Ben and Christine and our children, Sam and Audrey. He was always the talented big brother in Little League - pitching. He was excellent in math and had so many other interests. Linda had them absorbing history like you would not believe. Our prayers are with you. Love always - Steve, Patti, Sam, and Audrey
