I knew Ann as her son John is married to my sister Judy and we all grew up together in Sayre. Ann was a terrific mother and a great contributor of her time to the Sons of Itlay in Sayre. In high school Mike Dennis was in my class and we would get agang of friends and go over to the house at lunchtime. Mrs. Dennis as we called her was always inviting and happy to feed us!! She was a great lady and will be missed. On to a place of eternal peace. God speed Ann. Debi Lopez

I was Jim's first wife and high school girlfriend . We were together for 14 years. I grew up in their house. My mother Florina Therese Fomousi was child hood friends with Ann. I loved being part of their family. Ann treated me like a daughter, and I loved her and her son Jim forever. No one can take my memories from me. With all our faults, we always loved each other. I love you Jim and pray for peace, for you, Michael, your father Rodney, and Anna. You were all joys in my life. Love Lynn
