

Anna Pattison Eckard

August 30, 1956 - February 16, 2022

Anna M. Pattison/Eckard, 65 of Winter Park, FL passed away peacefully to be with our lord Wednesday February 16, 2022, at 5:27pm.

Anna was born on August 30, 1956, in, New Hampshire, but she spent her childhood and adulthood growing up in Orlando and College Park Florida.

She enjoyed spending time with family – vacations, holidays, art, house gatherings with all the family and most of all, time with her granddaughters Olivia and Miranda.

Preceded in death by her mother Catherine Jenkins and her son Eddie Oxendine.

She is survived by her beloved Granddaughters: Olivia Oxendine and Miranda Waldron. Father: Thomas Jenkins and his wife Beverly of Florida. Siblings: Antoinette Chesebro and her husband Wayne of Texas and Angelique Jenkins of South Dakota. Also, several nieces and nephews.

The family wants to thank the many friends who have shown so much kindness and support in our time of sorrow. The Love and respect Anna showed everyone was always from the heart. Always from a positive place. She showed us how to smile through sad times and how to cry tears of joy through happy times. We have all learned so much from Anna. Things that we now implement in our own lives, in our own families. For that we will always be grateful. It will always be present in our hearts. And we will always Love you. Always.

Psalms 30:5b weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.
