“ *Hello Joi,
I am sorry for your lost and that I can't be there.
I pray you find peace from God, who can help you with your sorrow.
Your mom is very beautiful and was very funny. I've loved her all my life and it hurts to know that she's gone from us, but a blessed assurance that we will see her again. We'll cry tears here in earth but no tears in heaven. Be strong you have Jesus love and protection.*

God bless u always.

Love Nadeen

I worked with Annie on my first state job before my daughter was born in 1975. We became very close since. Can't believe she has now left me. She was a true friend. I will feel empty knowing she is gone. My memories make me smile but then I remember she left then the tears start. The good thing is she's now with GOD. She's now safe and well.

“ My love and condolences to the family and friends. She was my sister from another mother since 1984. Our many memories include worship at Hallandale, singing, traveling, fishing, cooking, but most important, praying together on our life's journey. Rest well my sister and friend 🙏❤️. Love is stronger than death!

This makes me sad. I knew her to be a dear friend to my mother. I was always uplifted when she, my mother and her other female forces got together. Even though I was young I felt the presence of God. Worship would occur through laughter, edification or song. What a love.

Words aren't adequate to express how much my friend Ms. Annie meant to me. I consider myself blessed to have had her in my life, even for a short period of time. Ms. Annie had a heart of gold and most of all she loved the Lord. I'm going to miss our talks, our foodie adventures and our conversations about our furry family pets, her dog "Buttons" and my cat Spikéy. Someone once said, " what is grief but love persevering"! I will forever have a special place in my heart for my dear friend Ms. Annie. Rest In Peace.
