

Annisa Lindsey Sinanan

July 14, 1994 - May 24, 2026

With profound sadness, we announce the passing of Annisa Lindsey Sinanan, a beloved wife, mother, daughter, sister, and friend whose beautiful spirit touched the lives of so many.

Born in Miami, Florida, and later residing in Orlando, Florida, Annisa lived a life rooted in love, faith, kindness, and family. She earned her Bachelor's degree in Health and worked in medical coding within healthcare, dedicating herself to helping others with both compassion and intelligence.

Annisa was the kind of person who lit up every room she entered. She was funny, loving, nurturing, and endlessly giving. Her warmth made people feel safe, welcomed, and deeply cared for. To know Annisa was to experience genuine love and kindness.

Above all, Annisa's greatest joy was being a mother to her beloved children, Alani and Carter. She treasured every moment spent with them and with her family. She was also a devoted wife to James Crump, sharing a bond built on love and family.

She leaves behind her loving mother, Naudya Sinanan; her sisters, Falcia (husband Gairy) and Alecia; along with countless family members and friends who will forever cherish her memory. She is now reunited in eternal peace with her father, Derek Sinanan, who passed in 2021.

A woman of Christian faith, Annisa carried love and light wherever she went. Though her time here was far too short, the impact of her life will live on forever in the hearts of all who loved her.

Affectionately known as “Big Mama” and “Trill Nissa,” Annisa’s presence, love, and laughter will forever remain in the hearts of those who knew and loved her.

Forever loved. Forever remembered.

Upcoming Events

Service

MAY 31. 5:00 PM (ET)

All Saints Lutheran Church
12601 Balcombe Rd.
Orlando, FL 32837