

Anthony "Domino" Lini

August 3, 1962 - March 4, 2024

It is with heavy hearts that we bid farewell to Domino - born Anthony Blaine Lini - a beloved father, and cherished member of the radio community. Domino passed unexpectedly onto his eternal rest on March 4, 2024 in Apopka, Florida at the age of 61. Domino was born in Seattle, Washington, on August 3, 1962.

Domino embarked on his radio journey near his hometown in Fort Collins, Colorado, starting with positions at a local station before transitioning to overnight shifts at a station in Fargo, North Dakota. Subsequently, he navigated through various roles in Arkansas, New York, Georgia, California, Minnesota, Oklahoma, and Texas. Domino touched the lives of many with his warmth, wit, and passion for broadcasting. He joined WOCL in February 2010, shortly after PD Rick Stacy, with whom he had collaborated at Power 99/Atlanta in the mid-1980s. His extensive experience included hosting nights at KIIS-FM/Los Angeles in the mid-1990s and KHKS/Dallas from 1996 to 2003, along with roles at WPLJ/New York and KGGI/Riverside, among others.

A very dedicated father and esteemed radio personality, Domino poured his heart and soul into nurturing and guiding his beloved daughter Zoe, instilling in her values of love, kindness, and resilience. His unwavering support and boundless love will forever remain in the hearts of his family.

In his illustrious career as a radio personality, Domino captivated audiences with his magnetic presence and genuine connection. Whether through entertaining banter, insightful commentary, or heartfelt stories, he left an indelible mark on the airwaves and in the hearts of listeners.

Beyond his professional achievements, Domino was known for his generosity, humor, and unwavering commitment to making a positive impact on those around him. His legacy of kindness and compassion will continue to inspire all who had the privilege of knowing him. Though Domino may no longer grace the airwaves, his spirit will forever resonate in the memories and lives of those he touched.

Domino leaves to cherish the memories of his life, wife, Marika Martinez, his beloved daughter, Zoe; his parents, Kenneth and Susan Lini of Acworth Georgia; two sisters, Helen Kazerooni of Kennesaw Georgia, and Amy Francis of Lakewood Colorado; five nieces/nephews Madison, Morgan, Zachery, Quincy, and Avery; as well as extended family, acquaintances, fans and friends that will miss him dearly.

Domino, your laughter, love and legacy will forever echo in the hearts of the people who had the blessing of knowing you. As you embark on this new adventure, may the sky above be as bright as your spirit, and might you find eternal peace, happiness and joy on the other side.

“ I had the honor of meeting Domino at the grand opening of Ollies on West Colonial drive in Orlando. He was telling me stories about the great Wolfman Jack whom I listened to as a kid. Wolfman was his idol and he told me how lucky he was to meet him. Domino will go down as one of the greatest Radio Personalities on Radio. I miss listening to him on the radio but will cherish the time I met him and continued listening to him on the radio. He's up in heaven doing a morning show with the Wolfman. Rest In Peace Domino.
