“ I had the distinct honor of being a fellow employee with Tony for more than 25 years in the Office of the Auditor General - State of Florida. My wife, Mollie, and I got to know Tony and his dear wife Melody more socially at special events associated with the OAG office. He came to visit in our home in DeLand while there for eye doctor appointments. Although I saw very little of Tony after I retired in early 1991 I still consider him to be one of my dearest friends. I will miss him greatly. To Melody and other members of your family: please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers during these days of adjusting to life without the physical presence of husband, father, etc. May our loving Heavenly Father cover you with His comfort and peace during these days.

“ I worked with Tony briefly while with the Office of the Auditor General. We affectionately referred to him as the Italian Stallion. Tony always conducted himself with dignity and respect, except when he nearly broke his leg jumping over a fence after attending a baseball game. He was a fine gentleman and surely will be missed.
