“ To the BEST Tio ever, most of my favorite memories growing up include you and the laughs we had, the way you always made sure that the kids of the family could always create memories together. You’ve always brought tears of joy and now I have tears of heartbreak 💔. Thank you for always putting a smile on my face, for giving Arian the same laughs you gave me and knowing that he’ll remember those moments when we talk about you. I love you forever Tio ~❤️ Tuca (or like you would always say, Tukie)

“ Because of you, our family get-togethers have become entertaining and fun

There will be no one to replace that....I feel so empty! You were such a great person to me and to my family! I am missing you so much my heart is broken! God gave me an awesome brother-in-law because he knew I didn't have a brother. I keep thinking this is a bad dream....I promise I will be here for your sister and the family! Today, all I want to say is that you are the best brother-in-law. Love you always Anthony! Joe Bertrani

“ Anthony was the guy who made everyone laugh and smile. He always kept it real, there was nothing fake about him. No matter how much time went by without seeing him, he always made you feel as if no time had passed. He always lite up the room and made everyone feel comfortable...he was that kind of a man and friend. To his wife Miriam, I cannot imagine the pain you are now experiencing. You spent a lifetime together, you grew up together, you raised a family together, you were growing old together and now he's not physically there. Take comfort in knowing that he is still with you. He has his big beautiful angel wings wrapped tightly around you...forever & always keeping you safe and loving you. My prayers are for you, your children & family. I'm here to offer support...let me know what I can do to help.
My deepest condolences,
