“ Grieving can be the most difficult time for people especially when God calls one of his faithful disciples home. Mr. Leya was a role model, father figure and very supportive in my life through many difficult times. Grandpa you will be missed.

“ One of my fondest childhood memories was sitting listening to Mr.Leya tell a story as he worked in his yard. He always asked me questions and listened to my answers. As a shy, awkward child it made the lasting impression that my thoughts mattered. Our families have a lifelong bond and he has always been a calm presence in my life. He will be missed but he will always be loved. My condolences and love go out to all who share this loss.

“ Mr. Leya as we called him was a God fearing man, loved by many and will be missed especially by his children, Dunbar, Agie, Garth and Sonia. I always admired their dedication taking care of him through all those years of his illness. I will not see you when I return to Orlando but I will always remember every time I was leaving, him praying for me and reminding me to keep my faith in God. Thank you Mr. Leya

“ I can still hear Uncle Leah telling us children to be quiet and go to bed, in that firm nonsense tone, upstairs at the home in St. Lucia, next to Ma West... I can still remember visiting him at the police station ... can still hear him saying "Joycelyn, that dress a little short my dear..." aah, good times! He was my uncle and my godfather; no matter when we spoke, he always reminded me to put God first. He was a man of great faith and will be sorely missed.

“ Growing up, my Uncle Leya and my Aunt's home was my second home. They showed everyone who entered their home what God's love was. I will forever remember him with love. He is now resting peacefully with his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Jacinta Alfred - February 06, 2021 at 06:46 AM

PS

Brother Leyakatali was not just a brother in Christ but a friend. His home was always open to our family when he lived in St Croix. Since he moved to Florida, we kept in regular contact. He has gone to be with the Lord where the day never ends. May the Lord be with his children and grandchildren whom he loved so much.

To "Father Ley" (as I called him) family:

Father Ley was not just a man among other men to me. He was a man who, too many others have FAILED to pattern their lives after. The quality of his children, give testimony to that fact. I feel qualified to state that after knowing him for over 30 years. How many times have he and children welcomed me to their St. Croix, then Florida homes???

HE HAS GONE ON TO MEET MA NOW.....

Though not the same, Your loss is my loss, too!
Live on with the knowledge that I TRULY CARE!

My Great Grand Father was a man of God...the meditation of his heart was just about God's commandments and he tried to pass it on to all his children,grandchildren etc.when i got the call i couldn't believe it but i always remembered daddy told me that anyday from now he will be going to meet the creator and we always prayed together.although it has a little while I haven't spoke to him and it's so devastating but God is with this family.to all of us let's hold on..he's in a better place and we will see him again in paradise.I love you Daddy.i love you.making me cry as im typing this but all you want from us is to be strong and God fearing.we love yoh daddy...we love you..till we meet again.cant stop crying..i love you Daddy

I thank God for Mr. Leya and the example he has been to all those near and far, and especially to his family. He helped raised my Siblings and me after my Dad's passing with my Aunt. I will always be indebted to him. He loved the Lord and always talked about Him. He will be dearly missed. He is with the Lord and my Aunt, his beloved wife. I will see you again, so enjoy the Lord and your wife. Thank God for your loving and caring children who been with you and Aunt Got through thick and thin. God bless them. RIP
