

Antonio Manuel Perez

September 27, 1996 - September 15, 2018

Antonio Manuel Perez also known as Quest was only 21 yrs old. He would have been celebrating his 22nd bday on 09/27. Antonio was known as a talented, amazing young man that was so loved by so many. From making his own music and loving to perform, to being a car mechanic. He had an amazing love for music. He wrote music, made beats and recorded the songs made. And when I say "car mechanic," I mean a very talented one. His crew of wonderful friends and himself took cars apart to replace them with other parts, to moving the parts to a completely different car. He was able to do anything that had to do with under the hood of a car. Him and his friends had their own car club which they call "Varsity Stance" that kept them very busy and out of the streets. Antonio left behind a mother, father, daddy, 2 brothers, 5 sisters plenty family and friends that loved him dearly. He was the oldest of all his siblings and loved them all with his all. He was an amazing big cousin to all, they all looked up to him in many different ways. He loved hard and demanding and was always a protector. He was an amazing artist. Drew plenty pictures and tattoos for others. He loved sending funny videos or sharing funny stories to family and friends just to make them laugh. His amazing personality, his ambitious to always be great, his strength of friendship and love he provided to so many, his guidance and understanding not to judge others but only love them, his incredible ego but please don't call him a pretty boy..LOL. Antonio was a tough young man that can deal with physical pain very well, as everyone seen his art work on his body but when it came to needles, he will turn into a little girl..LOL. He was the apple of our eye. Antonio was a very independent young man, that was very hard headed at times, wanted things done his way, but most of the time was always right. He loved the thrill of fast cars and fast motorcycles, car meets and handing out with his friends. He spent most of his time under a hood of a car with his friends or in a studio making music. Antonio had a smile to light up the room and make every ones worries go away. He was an incredible young man that was taken too soon and that will be missed dearly.
