“ Augusto was a great guy and a wonderful friend. I truly enjoyed spending time with him during our three years in high school. He used to make this joke saying that he went to a store one day and there was a sign on the wall that said "No shirt. No shoes. No Pacific Islanders" Loved his sense of humor.

He was a great sport when I asked him to participate in a lip sync version of "The Lion Sleeps Tonight" at our school talent show. His part was a huge hit and the crowd went wild. Trying to locate the video to share. It is a treasure :-)

My sincere condolences to Augusto's family.

Sincerely, Amy Fegebank Beaver

Including a picture I took of Augusto and friends from senior year of high school.

“ I am saddened by this news. Gus was one of the funnest and funniest guys I knew at Boone! We took trigonometry together and I would help him out and review lessons with him. And Dang it if he didn't get a better grade than me on most of the tests!! He would laugh and laugh about this!! Peace Brother And Peace to those who he loved the most - His Family!!

“ He was just the greatest guy and a great friend to all who knew him! This just breaks my heart! I can see his smile now....you could see it a mile away! I am praying for all of you, I cannot imagine your heartache and grief! May the Lord bless you and comfort you giving you a peace that surpasses all understanding.

Sincerely,

“ Gus was a great guy and wonderful neighbor for 25 years. He was part of a special family who helped make our neighborhood an enjoyable place to live. When 4 hurricanes struck Orlando in 2004 he and his late Dad, Augie, pitched right in to help clean up the neighborhood. We pray that our Lord will comfort his Mom, Virgie and his brothers at this sad time.

“ This is such sad news to me. We were neighbors for so long. He was a great friend and even tutor. I have so many fond memories of him. He even taught me to drive. Love his family too. Everyone is in my thoughts and prayers.
