

Barbara Ann Rose

July 17, 1934 - February 9, 2018

Mrs. Barbara Rose passed away at the age of 83 on the 9th of February in Orlando, Florida.

Barbara, a native of the state of Iowa, graduated from Indianola High School and from the University of Iowa with a Bachelor's degree in Commerce. She met her late husband Sanford Rose as she pursued a career in Sales in New York City. Barbara raised her children in Teaneck, NJ. During their youth, she also managed sports leagues in the local community.

Barbara had a deep enthusiasm for life – she loved to travel, to create quilts and to spend time with her family and friends. People always marveled at her deeply caring nature.

Barbara will be fondly remembered by her sons, Noah and Adam and their respective spouses (Lea Williams Rose and Zachary Bradbury), her brother, David Launspach, her sister-in-laws, Brenda Launspach and Lucretia Rowland, close cousins, extended family members, and dear friends.

Please feel free to send a message of condolence to the family's online guest book, under the tribute wall tab.
