

Barry Clifford Lambert

November 27, 1937 - August 15, 2020

Barry Clifford Lambert, 82. Passed away peacefully on Saturday August 15, 2020.

Barry was born on November 27, 1937 in East Stroudsburg, Pennsylvania to the late Marion and Clifford Lambert. He was an only child. Barry received a BS in Education from East Stroudsburg State College with a major in Physical Education. He joined the U.S Navy in 1960 and entered flight training school. He then served our country as a pilot earning the rank of Lieutenant Commander until retiring in 1980.

Barry was a caring and loving family man. He dedicated all his time to his wife, children, grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Barry spent his leisure time bowling, playing golf, taking the family on vacations to anywhere sunny, and fun trips to the casino with his partner in crime, his loving wife, Haydee, they were inseparable. They spent a long and loving 48 years together. Meeting in Japan on one of his deployments they fell deeply in love and married in 1972. Barry's heart filled with love, adopted her children from the Philippines as his own, then brought them here to the United States where they started a glorious life together.

A tremendous loss is felt deeply by his entire family and dear friends.

He is survived by his wife, Haydee; His 6 children Brenda, Kevin, Erlinda, Albert, Josephine, and Mercy; His 11 grandchildren, Ashley, Lacey, Shanelle, Arielle, Jassamine, Aj, Kierra, Salena, Alex, Jessica, and Taylor; and his 7 great grandchildren, Caszwell, Jhayla, Silas, Cameron, Carde, Makenzie, and Lana.

The family will receive close friends for the viewing of Barry.
