“ Hey Dad, been a while. So i'm 25 damn it's been a while. I have so much to tell you let's start by saying those men that was messaging you are neither my husband but they were sweet and knew i missed you a lot. But i got married at 20 to my husband now and we have a daughter named Leylani. She is 4 and i have moved a lot in the world. i miss you and keep pictures of you so she know what he grandpa looks like. she's silly and sassy and i know you would have loved her. I miss you so much. I tried to write this on your birthday but just couldn't. I know you watch over me everyday and i wish that you could have said i love you to me one more time. you really went to fast and too soon. Thank you so much for the knowledge you could give me. it sucks losing someone you knew before you could actually get to the good parts. anyways I love you daddy - Leiana

“ I had a dream about you last night and decided to tell my sister about the dream today, she asked me when was the last time I saw you? I was like it's been a while, I know over a year, then she said I should check on you, I was like, let me google him. As I was preparing to tell her about the time you and that guy was in some green car with huge wheels, I'm typing your name up and it said "obituary". I'm in shock, we didn't keep in touch, but I was always happy to see you. I drove around the areas that I know you hung out at, just incase I would run into you. You were my first real boyfriend, it didn't last, but it was cool, because you were a cool guy. Rest in Paradise love, thanks for the visit last night. I don't know what it means, but I will find out. Love you.

Cuz, I know it hurts, he is smiling at you and all his live ones. Just to think we were all in middle school together. I didn't know him well but I remember him. No one deserves to lose their life in the hands of man. RIP

“ I want to first off offer my condolences to the entire Ikner Family. Paul was a great person to his family and those close to him my mom calls him her Bob Marley LOL no matter what amount of time passed without seeing Paul he would talk to you and you all would pick up as if no time has passed, he loved the kids on Brooke St some were family and some were not. When the ice cream truck came around if a child didn't have any money Uncle Paul as the kids would call him including mine he would get them ice cream, and if they acted up they didn't want to see Uncle Paul because he will get on you but all out of love and for you to act right, He will truly be missed RIP Paul. Ms. Mary, Tara, and all the kids hold on to the memories and cherish what time you all had and GOD will see you all through this hard time.
