

Blanche P. Stamper

December 7, 1924 - December 29, 2015

Blanche Pauline Stamper of Orlando, aged 91, died peacefully on December 29, 2015. She was born on December 7, 1924 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, the daughter of Fred and Pauline Hofstetter.

Blanche thoroughly enjoyed music, gardening, nature and being with her family. She learned the piano at a very young age and attended the Conservatory of Music in Philadelphia. She taught piano professionally for over 40 years and passed her love of music to the rest of the family. On May 23, 1953, Blanche married William H. Stamper in Philadelphia. They were happily married for over 59 years. They had 3 sons and lived in Philadelphia and South Jersey before moving to Orlando, Florida in 1962. They made their home in Orlando where Blanche was a dedicated member of Reformation Lutheran Church on Michigan Street and continued to teach piano for many years.

Blanche is survived by her three sons: William, Christopher and Robin; her daughter-in-law, Dawn (Chris) and grandchildren Garrett, Alexandria, Connor, Charnita, Jessica and her daughter, Amaya; lifelong friend, Lois Johanson as well as her other loving relatives and friends.

She is now reunited with her beloved husband, William H. Stamper, in the presence of our Lord. A memorial service will be held on Saturday, January 9, 2016 at Reformation Lutheran Church from 2p-4p.

“ Mrs. Stamper taught the Fennimore kids who lived one street over for many years. My love for music was heightened through her very patient efforts to teach me piano. I am saddened to learn of her passing. I will also always fondly remember listening to Robin play the music of the great artists with such skill.
