“ Im very sorry for the death of your loved one I would like to share with you a text of the Bible found in John 5: 28,29 where Jehovah God promises that we will see our loved ones who have died for they will be resurrected. A beautiful promise for those of us who have lost relatives in death. I hope the text helps them and accompany them in their pain.

“ Love you Bobby Ann hope you are with the rest of the family rejoicing. I will miss you commenting on the post of how beautiful my grandkids are. I will miss how you always would tell me how much you love watching me grow up. I will miss you just out of the blue when you hear the song Moma He's Crazy texting me and telling me how you miss me and my mom singing that song and how it reminded you of me and my mom. You will be missed I will miss those pop up text and most of all I will miss you. Love you always aunt Bobby

“ My favorite times with Grandma Rainey were made around the campfire. She always made a point to spend time with Kaleb, Emily, and I. She was full of wisdom and she taught me so much. She was one heck of a cook, she would tell you she always added love into everything she made. She was the most giving, kindhearted person I have ever met. She would give you the tiedye shirt off her back! I'd give anything to hear her call me BabyGirl just one more time...she used to joke that I made her a Grandma too young but that she wouldn't change a thing. I'll miss our patio sessions and the way we just sat and talked about life for hours. You always told me to keep my head up and I'm trying my hardest. Please look over me. Love you to the moon and back! Love, Brandi
