“ Ms Brenda you will truly be missed.. Whenever I needed you, you never said no. My son loved going to your house. I was always thankful for that you treated my son like one of your grandkids. You didn't let to time go by long without you texting me to see how we was doing and I did the same. It's still so hard to believe. I'm so glad you able to be a part of our lives. 🙏🙏🙏

“ Every time I got ready to write this I couldn't because I am so heartbroken!!! From day one you accepted me as your daughter and treated me as such. We shared a lot with each other. I will miss our talks and good laughs. There was nothing I wouldn't have done for you and I think you knew that! You were an amazing woman of God!!! and you raised some awesome men...You will continue to shine through each and every one of the them. Your grandchildren are going to miss you like crazy but we will not let them forget what you taught them and how much you loved them. I love you Ma Brenda and I will never forget what I promised you #JollyStrong

“ I had the pleasure of becoming acquainted with this beautiful soul in 2016. She touched everyone she encountered. She always dropped nuggets that encouraged and motivated. Her wisdom and love for people was unmatched. I'm grateful that our paths crossed. She'll be missed.

“ Ms. Jolly,
I still don't want to accept that you are longer here in the flesh. There aren't even any Words that express what you have meant to my family and I. We will miss your words of wisdom, your love, patience and all around presence. I don't know if I would have been able to get through this thing called motherhood without your endless teachings . I will miss you immensely. The tears haven't stop falling but I know you are in a better place. You were so many things to so many people. I am glad I was able to show you the love while you were here to receive it. I want you here but I know God wanted you more. Briana and myself till coming to Florida and hearing you fuss is out amongst so many other things. Sleep in paradise my “Dear Jolly”.

“ Mom, I don't know where to begin... let me start by saying I love you so much! Thank you for showing us how to be men. Many people don't think a woman can transition a boy into a man. You've continued to prove them wrong! You'll always be with me ma! Thank you for your truth, and your unconditional love! Because of you, I am the husband and father I am today. You've touched countless lives, educated countless children, and mentored so many in need. The world will continue to experience your love through us. I love you mommy!

“ Ma, I miss you. I love you. I'm thankful for your teachings. I admire your resilience. You embody "strength" in so many ways. You are always a sounding board and compass for the many decisions, good or bad, that I have made in my life. You are a positive voice during adverse occurrences. In drafting this post, my heart is heavy and I'm deeply saddened and heartbroken. I love you, I miss you. Only one you. Irreplaceable. Unique. Compassionate. Generous. Loyal. Supportive. Extremely missed. Watch over me... I still need you, momma.
