

Brenda K. Young

February 17, 1953 - November 10, 2014

Brenda Kemz Young passed away peacefully in her sleep at her home on 11-10-14 after a long and courageous battle with multiple myeloma. She was born on February 17, 1953 in Syracuse, NY and moved to Orlando, FL in 1981. Brenda is survived by her husband Bill Young, Orlando, her mother Katie Kemz, Orlando, and her brother, Richard Kemz, Lockport, NY. She attended nursing school in Syracuse, NY and was a Registered Nurse specializing in cardiac care.

Brenda loved all animals and literally would not harm a fly. She was also capable of maintaining lifelong friendships with many of her childhood friends from Syracuse.

The family wishes to thank the wonderful physicians and staff at Shands Hospital, the Moffit Cancer Center, the MD Anderson Cancer Center, and Vitas Hospice for the excellent and compassionate care provided for many years.

A private ceremony for family and friends will be conducted at a future date.

Tribute Wall

RO

“ Last saw you at our 20 reunion. So beautiful in all ways.....

RDP

---

Roger - December 16, 2016 at 05:45 PM

DM

“ ... as a young man .. Brenda touched my soul and I never forgot that moment ..

... Brenda was truly a Star ..

My sincere condolences to Her Family and Friends,

---

Dan Mahonik - April 05, 2015 at 08:30 AM