

Brenden Yuma Smith

September 11, 1994 - March 16, 2015

Brenden Yuma Smith 9-11-94 3-16-15

You were on a mission from the day you were born to bring love and happiness to a world that is torn. Your mission is done and now you are gone. I know you had to leave, your time was done, you will always be missed, you will always be loved. This is something you made sure of with a goofy smile and a funny laugh. You lived your life like it was a blast. You touched our hearts and gave us so much. Your mission is done, my lovely son, the time has come for you to rest. Fly high, my angel.

from your loving father

20 years ago when that precious boy came into our lives we never fathomed we would only get to borrow him for such a short time. Yuma Brenden Smith you made us smile and scream and yes, sometimes both at the same time. You made us curse and laugh you taught us how to live and love and a little patience goes a long way. You disappointed us, but you also made us proud as hell. We are better people for having known you. You have a little sister that adored you. We will never know why you had to go so soon or the way you went, but you are so truly loved that you're having 3 Memorials. You touched a lot of lives.

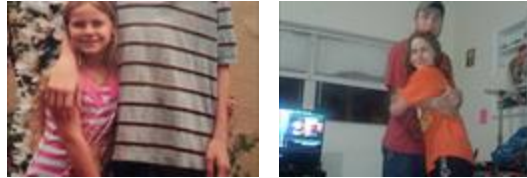

Until we meet again our sweet boy, rest easy with grandma and grandpa and give heaven hell with Thomas, JRoe and Charlie. We will love and miss you the rest of our lives.

Brenden is survived by his sister Hayley Swango, mother; Tammy Swango, step-dad; Matthew Taylor, father; Carlton Smith, Step-mom; Berna, uncles; Shawn Moore and William Beaton, Aunt; Bobi Beaton and Liz Mckee, close cousins; Rayschell Beaton, Will Beaton, Darroll Carroll and grandmother; Linda Fox, as well as best friend; Mark Moore and many other friends and family.

“ Yuma was a beautiful person with a heart full of love. I will reread his poetry and remember the talks we had. I wish I had been able to keep in touch with him after he left Port Charlotte. I will miss him and regret he was never able to fulfill his dream to become a Marine. His time here on Earth was way to short. Rest in Peace, Yuma. May you find the happiness and love you so deserve in the your special spot in heaven.

“ He came to my house just to rub my back because i was sick. I didn't want any company but he just showed up and made me have him and i was grateful for his presence. My sister and her husband are horrible people. He came with me to help retrieve my hutch and would've fought to defend me. We always were joking about one thing or another.... He would literally bark at people like he was a wild dog with rabies just to make me laugh. Take my shoe or pant leg in his mouth and act like a puppy. He even tried to snuggle like one. He argued with my Labrador in wolf about who was sleeping next to me. In high school i had family problems out the wazoo. And he and i made a pact i couldn't do what he did till he did it. We had just spoke the other week.... I dont understand why he didnt say anything. Why he didn't talk to me. He was and amazeing person and one of my best friends. I hate that he's gone. I wish i could've done something
