“ I light this yellow candle as a reminder of the Sunshine that was gifted to Martha Hassell when she Birth her son into this world communicating with his loving mother in morning realizing the trip would have been too much for her it gave me great joy to be an ear for his mother who loves Kherson children so much she is a strong woman to hold herself in her time sadness her joy was to be able to remember the love they shared proud of her son and all her child having peace with In herself know she gave all she had for the well-being of her children teaching the rules of survival love ❤️ and important value of family not for getting there is a God in Heaven she said he is at peace ☮️ now. This candle reminder that God is the everlasting light and bring joy to light our way in Darkness so Family May Bryan memories be a source of this light when you remember him.RIP and May God comfort the love ❤️ ones. Love ❤️ to all.
