“ My dear and sweet Brother & Uncle Junior: I am going to miss you very much! I am so thankful that I got to spend the past two weeks with you in Florida before you left to go to Haven. It enlightens me to know that I lead you to the Lord on Saturday March 16, 2013 and you recieved Jesus Christ in your heart as your personal lord and savior. I know you are now rejoicing with the lord, as well as with mom and our little brother Luis. You were always full of life. When there was a party or family get together or just you home alone you were the life of the party(you were the party). You had such an extreme passion and love for music and playing your accordian. I loved how you loved to wear all your different hats especially the turtle hat. As a young teenager you always played with puppets (the granny puppet),you would make such a funny voice that sounded just like a granny. A nd you would say the funniest jokes, "Well, Well, Well...who do we have here", it made me and our family and friends laugh so hard. You loved to cook for yourself and others (my favorite was your corn beef). I admired you for being such a hard working man and a supportive father and Grandfather to your sons and grandchildren. I also admired how caring of a person you were. You have contined these characteristics and personality until the day you got sick and even thru your illness you were the same brother I also knew and loved dearly. For the last 14 days of your life I had the honor of enjoying your company and taking care of you while you were in the nursing home. I miss giving you your daily craving of chocolate pudding and apple juice. You loved when I would massage your face and hands with cream. I will never forget the words you told me "You are my Angel Telly!", and also the abundance of kisses you gave me. You then thanked me and our little sister Iris for being there for you in your last days and I want to say, that is what sisters are for. I love you my sweet caring brother and you will be missed and forever loved. Rest in Peace my loving brother.

Love Always and forever:

Your Sister Telly, your neice Mekey and Nicole
