“ Dear Viadero Family,
I am deeply sorry for the lose of your beloved wife, mother, and grandmother. ChaCha will be missed by all who knew her. I'll always remember her as a fun-loving person who loved to be surrounded by family and friends. ChaCha always made me feel like I was family and always insisted I eat something. She would tell me that I looked too skinny and that the wind will blow me away if I didn't fatten up. Like a good Cuban mother she wanted to make sure everyone was fed. I also remember her love of telling jokes. Please take comfort that ChaCha is now in the loving arms of Jesus and is no longer in pain. I am sure she is dancing around to good Cuban music and trying to get the angels in heaven to dance and eat more. I know this is a difficult time and at this moment no words will take your sorrow away but I send you all my love, hugs and kisses. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. I Love you all.

ChaCha, I will miss you but never forget you. I promise to dance a lot and eat all my Cuban food (yummy). I love you too.

“ Querida Familia Viadero les damos nuestras condolencias a todos y que el Señor les de la fortaleza que se necesita en estos momentos tan difíciles. Conosco a Chacha desde hace mucho tiempo cuando nuestros hijos eran compañeros en St John Vianney School y tambien trabajamos en Disney por 20 años. Chacha fue una buena esposa , madre y amiga. Siempre la recordaremos.
