“ Oh Carl, my sweet, sweet Carl. I couldn't have been more blessed to have Carl in my life. He was not only just my coworker, but he was honestly and truly my best friend. Carl was someone that you could tell anything to and you would know that he wouldn't say a peep to anyone and that he would guide you and advise you as much as he could. I can't even begin to count all the times that he has helped me out without any hesitation and has made sure that I was happy and well. Going to work will never be the same because if he was working with me I automatically knew that it was going to be a good day. Holidays won't be the same because I was so used to having Carl there. I remember when he spent Christmas Day with us, thanksgiving days with us and even Easter. I have so many memories with him that I will cherish forever and ever. Carl was someone special and he always be someone special. There is no one like him. I am forever grateful for the friendship that we had. I love you so much, Carl. I hope you are having a blast in heaven. I cannot wait until I get to see you again, but until then I'll keep your memory alive and keep close to me in my heart. ❤️

“ Dear Carl,
You are the most special and important person in my life, thank you for looking out for me and Chasity in our time in need. Chasity was very sad when I told her news that you went away to heaven, but she knows that she will forever have a guardian angel. Thank you for being you, thank you for being apart of my little family and thank you for giving so much love to everyone around you. I honor you today, tomorrow and always. I love you little brother.

“ The world couldn't of asked for a more spectacular man than Carl. He would of taken the shirt of his back and given it to anyone in need. He was an amazing friend and treated everyone like family . I can't even begin to recall the countless times he has helped me out and done it all with a smile
On his face . The world will truly have lost an outstanding citizen , caring friend and loving person. Heaven however , doesn't realize the angel they have received . I love you Carl

“ It feels almost unreal to mourn a friend as great as Carl. My father passed away, but Carl is the first death I've really had to experience. A weird foggy feeling, almost a numbing, followed by moments of disbelief and sudden realization. Carl and I didn't know each other for long and we weren't the closest in our friend group, but that doesnt mean he didn't change my life for the better too. Going to work isn't the same, realizing he'll never stop by the bakery just for a quick convo or a little hello is frustrating and beyond upsetting. The craziest thing is is that, that shows exactly how great of a guy he was. How he could impact life in the biggest and smallest ways. It feels weird leaving group hangouts and not saying bye to Carl, and I'm not sure if that will ever change. But, here's to the memories and the laughs and the jokes and the everything that just made him the sweetest and most genuine person we all could ever know. Rest in peace my friend.

“ Dear Rudy,

I've spent the last few days with your Mom. I also stopped in to visit your Dad. I have never in my life seen a mother and father so sad. Their hearts are broken.

However, I do know that you knew the love they have for you. That much love is what made you the sweetest young man on earth.

I also know the love you have for our Lord Jesus. I know that you are saved and are now in Heaven. What a comfort to know that you accepted Jesus as your Savior while you were here.

You are missed so much by so many. You are truly an Angel. We'll see you soon.

*All my love,
Aunt Cheryl*

Thank you Cheryl. Rudy loved you very much. When he spoke about his Aunt Cheryl I could see the pride on his face and hear the admiration in his voice. I have always believed you were one of his awesome roll models and for that I am humbled and grateful. I love you.

“ As I sit and reflect on pictures and memories of my sweet cousin, Carl Rudolph Dulcie III, I am reminded of the most beautiful soul I've ever known. Everyone knew him as Carl, but to our family, he was Rudy, our Peanut, the Apple of Gram's Eye. Rudy and I spent countless nights and weekends together at our Gram's house, and I loved watching him flourish and grow into a smart and successful young man. He was always the first to volunteer to help anyone with anything, stranger, kin, or friend. To know God blessed our family with him for 22 years, to show a true example of what kindness and humility really is, we are eternally grateful. Rudy was and will forever be an Angel. He is the perfect blend of his gentle, loving parents. We miss you, Peanut. Please give Gram, Pam, & Papaw a kiss for us. We will be reunited soon. I love you.

“ Thank you Mrs. Hamacher for your families lovely thoughts and memories of Rudy. That was what kind of person Rudy was. He gave his heart and soul to everyone he knew. His kindness, compassion and smile touched everyone. He was that way the day he was born. I knew then that God had sent the world a living angel. He was such a joy in my life. He is my reason for my love and my faith. REST IN PEACE SON. We will be reunited in heaven. All my love forever.

“ Carl was like family, to our family, and spent many days and nights in our home. Our son Michael, and Carl, we're best friends. We have 4 children, and have had many of their friends in our home, and I can tell you that Carl is the nicest, kindest, most genuine young man and friend to my son, and our family, ever. My mother lived with us until she passed away from Alzheimer's, this past September. There were times when I couldn't get home from work before the caregivers had to leave, and no one else was available, and Carl would come and stay with my mom until I got home. This is just one example, of the giving Carl, I know to be. I have many wonderful memories of Carl, such as him spending last Christmas Eve with us, and getting engrossed in watching a Showtime series with me, to the point we made it into a marathon, and annoyed Michael, by Carl knowing the character's names. A most special memory, is Carl spending time with our family, after my mother's memorial service, which I'm including a picture of. I send my deepest condolences and sympathies to the Dulcie family, and pray God's peace for you, as you mourn and grieve the loss of your precious son and brother. Please know, on behalf of the Hamacher family, we grieve with you.
