“ junior you will be missed. I haven't seen you since Montrel's passing. I wish the best for your family. You were like one of mine. The Meadow woods boy.
Love you. Say hello to Montrel for me.

“ FRIENDSHIPS OF THE GOOD: are based on mutual respect and admiration. These friendships take longer to build than others, but they're also more powerful and enduring. They often arise when two people recognize that they have similar values and goals; that they have similar visions for how the world (or at least their lives) should be. Not infrequently, THEY BEGIN IN CHILDHOOD, ADOLESCENCE!!!----GOOD FRIENDSHIP SINCE 84---- REST MY BROTHER, REST!!!! from MEADOW WOODS to TAFT, JR TO CHEW..... WE STAYED 10 TOES DOWN!!!! imma, miss sliding up on ya, whenever I'm in the city!!! LOVE YA JR
