I will miss mi hermanó. I spent much time traveling together for work. We had many great conversation. One of those conversation was his daughter marrying a Puerto Rican so I ask him about his grandson, is he Puerto Rican or Colombian? He pause for moment and we both in unison say he is Colorico.

Since he left C&I, we used to talk in the phone from time to time just to catch up with each other's life. About three months ago I call him and spoke about the Lord, his family, and all the traveling he been doing with his children to Europe, Columbia and Puerto Rico. He truly was enjoying his life with his dear once. As long I have my memory I will remember my dear hermanó. I love Carlito dearly.

May the peace of the Lord would overshadow you through these moment.

Carlos Ariza... mi padrino, también el de otras personas que seguro concuerdan en que: Fue tremendo Padrino! Alguien que se convirtió en un tío, un amigo, alguien a quien se quiere mucho. Tantos momentos donde juntos pasábamos increíbles momentos que hoy atesoramos y añoramos... jugando fútbol, reunidos en familia, riendo, compartiendo... tantos momentos y ocasiones que quedan plasmados en el alma; y que me recuerdan lo increíble persona que fue mi padrino. Lo extrañaremos mucho... a su Familia: La queremos por siempre y cuentan con miles que los sentimos como nuestra familia

“ El amigo Carlos fué una de esas personas que llegan a tu vida para quedarse. Sabías que contarías con el cuando fuera necesario y su alegría contagiosa hacia más ameno cualquier momento compartido. Lo admiré como padre y como líder de una linda familia hecha a pulso al lado de su amada esposa Berlitz. Supo demostrar que este sentimiento de admiración era reciproco y nunca escatimó cariño y elogios para nuestra familia. Fue una gran bendición haberte conocido Carlos Ariza y cuidaremos que los bonitos recuerdos llenen ese vacío que aún no digerimos. Mientras descansa en paz y mucha conformidad a todos tus seres queridos.

“ *Apreciado amigo, hoy estás en el cielo pero queda en la tierra un sabor amargo por tu partida.
Te fuiste muy joven.*

Excelente profesional y persona. Jocosos. Buena gente. Amable. Siempre con una sonrisa. Y un profesional muy capaz. Era el libro Gordo de Petete para todos los ingenieros.

Mis condolencias a la familia, Dios les de mucha fortaleza para seguir avanzando, porque eso quiere Dios de nosotros. Debemos seguir sembrando amor en este mundo.

Dios les bendiga, les envío un abrazo de esos que llenan el alma que en este momento está tan afligida 🙏

Brille para el la luz perpetua.

“ Was Project Coordinator at C&I in Louisville. Carlos was assigned to the team. Was the most dedicated employee and would do whatever he was asked. Carlos was a fine friend and a family man. He loved talking about his kids and the little grandson who took bat to ornaments. Spent lots of time with Carlos in Texas. I will never forget the many great meals we had together. Favorite story... I asked Carlos, HEY, WERE YOU GET YOUR RENTAL CAR. He was trying to say One ten, ten pin lane but it came out as TING, TING, TING. I laughed so hard and say .. Carlito, write it down. That Accent. Love that man
