“ I remember growing up I thought he was my dad until when I was about 8 or 9 years old I received a letter from my real father. Confused I asked Carlos why did he write to me. That's when he told me that he wasn't my dad. Yet he still treated me like a daughter. I remember asking him to give me away on my wedding and him saying "What if I say no? I'm tired of giving my daughters away." I thought that was funny. Needless to say, he did give me away. Thank you, Papi
