“ Dear Constance DeMarco, my condolences to you and to our entire family on the loss of mom (Aunt Millie) She was and always will be a strong Woman who inspired many by her belief and strength in God. She was a dedicated mom to you Connie. As you were to her. Aunt Millies strength and persistence helped her through many tough times but she always achieved her goals. She was pre deceased by her husband John DeMarco, in 1963 and managed to keep her faith in God and moved forward to raise you to become a beautiful and successful daughter. Now Aunt Millie is at peace with her mom and dad along with her sisters, Tomasina and Mary in Heaven. Til we meet again. I Love and miss you Aunt Millie greatly. Your nephew Anthony Corvino.

“ Aunt Millie (Carmela) was a true gift from God. She was the Aunt who everyone looked up to for strength and guidance. She believed if you worked hard in school you would be successful. But most importantly Aunt Millie was dedicated to God and Always shared her belief in him to help inspire all of us to be better people. With Deepest Sympathy to my cousin Constance DeMarco, and our entire family. Aunt Millie will be sorely missed by all. Love Anthony Corvino.
