“ Mi Querida Familia,

Le ruego a Dios, los reconforte y allane el camino ante la abruptes de la perdida, que la esperanza eterna sea el sentimiento que los cobije, y que Dios sea la huella tras cada uno de estos dificiles pasos.

Mi ultima memoria fue cuando lleve a mi mama Rogelia a visitarlos ella estava tan contenta de ver a Carmen Y a Paquito comimos juntos y ella estava bien feliz "siempre con su sonrisa".

Aqui estamos en Miami para servirles,

Tere hija de Rojelia.

Carmen had a great laughter.she could read through people know when they were down and give a great advice,always willing to seat and talk to anyone and have a cup of coffee. but just her laugh of joy would make you laugh. God has called upon a angel and Jehovah said we aren't dead just in a deep sleep from witch one day we would all be awaken .RiP good friend someday will meet again.

From your loving sister Anna whom thought you would never part from her side but you did, however it may be it won't be forever. I know we will meet again so just save me a cup of coffee and some of that good cuisine you would always make. I will always have you in my heart.

“ I remember when abuela and abuelo came to live with us and she would ask me to make her coffee and watch arrow, I got her hooked on that show, but even though I got tired of making coffee she'd say it was the best 😊
