“ We are sorry to read of the passing of your loved one. Words don't always ease the pain when you are grieving the death of a loved one, but we hope you will find comfort in Jesus' promise of the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) when he will raise up those who are now sleeping in death (John 11:11) restoring them back to life, on the renewed Paradise earth (John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43) what a wonderful blessing to look forward too. Until then, may Jehovah God (Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.

“ To the family and friends, I am so sorry for your loss. God provides comfort in these difficult times through promises of hope for the future. A resurrection of all those in the memorial tombs, John 5:28,29, A time when no resident will say “I am sick”... Isaiah 33:24, and Rev 21:4 promises that mourning, pain, and even death will be no more. For now, hold on to your precious memories and may God bless all of you with peace.
