“ I'm happy I got to see Abuela one last time when I visited in Florida when my father stopped by there....it was great to see everyone. Most of my memories of her is when I was a young kids and and she always seemed mad at me for something lol....like I was always ready to break something in her house or something hehe.....but we loved each other.....i miss you

“ The last time I saw you was in Aug. 2012 when I took my mom to Florida for a surprise visit to see her sisters. You were so surprised that you let out a scream! Lol!! It was a very special time and I'm glad I was able to witness how happy the sisters were together. Since then, my mom and tia Luz have departed to be with the Lord. Now heaven has received another angel and you have been reunited with your sisters, abuelita and your two daughters. May you RIP Tia. Until we meet again! From your niece Wanda ❤️

“ My precious mos beautiful aunt Carmen. I am heartbroken over losing you. As a youngster we grew far away from Buffalo so our visits from NYC was not often. It was here in Orlando that we found you again in 1994. Since 1994 we reconnected and reestablish our love together as niece and aunt. Where u would visit with mom ( your sister) on a weekly basis and where all major holidays including summer BBQs and Family Birthday, you and Jose were present. You and mom shared many beautiful memories and never once had any discord of any fashion. tia I grew to love you more and more as an adult. My husband and children had the beautiful of sharing life with you and Jose. I know he was the love of your life and you of his. I thank you for being the best tia on moms side. I thank you for allowing me to be present each week in the nursing home as you and mom got sicker with emphysema due to smoking. You have that beautiful smile that no other aunt had and I am proud to be the only niece and David the only nephew that were a constant in your life. Even up until last week where I came to see you Jose and Carmencita in the nursing home to bring all three of You gifts. I am broken because you were the last maternal aunt but at the same time I am happy that u will be with ur 2 daughters and tia Rosa , grandma and Mami. The sisters you loved the most. I am happy that u are rejoicing in Heaven with ur beautiful sisters all of whom are now angels looking over us and guiding us. Thank You for your gifts and Thank You for all you true and genuine love. GRandma raised 3 beautiful daughters who have the same heart and love for family. She had raised her sons who were all great sibling and uncles to us. Thank You for being such a great aunt. I will love u forever and ever alongside Tia Rosa and Mami. REst in Peace Eternal to you, tia Rosa, mom and grandma. I promise to watch over Jose to the best of my ability. I love you forever tia. Your niece Nancy, Manuel, lauren, Jovan , Toribio, David and baby Bruce.

“ Siento mucho su pérdida se que están pasando por un momento doloroso por eso me gustaría compartir con ustedes un texto de la biblia se encuentra en Juan 5:28,29 donde Jehová Dios promete que volveremos a ver a nuestros seres queridos que han muerto pues serán resucitados. Que bonita esperanza para quienes hemos perdido algún familiar en la muerte, espero que el texto les ayude y los acompañe en su dolor.
