“ When I was young I grew up in church and always heard that when the world was going to end God's Angels would play trumpets. Well the world has not ended but the Angels are playing a beautiful song and rejoicing that a new Angel has come home. It kills me and my heart is hurting but at the same time I am happy. You are finally with your boys again and I know they are so happy to have you back. We stay here in pain, missing you oh so very much. Mami, please do me a favor. Tell my dad I love and miss him too. Also let him know you raised me right and that he has 2 beautiful grandchildren. One day we will all see each other again.... I love you always, your daughter, Seli

“ *Hi Abuela
Just wanted to let you know I love you so much and wish you were with us. I know God had another plan for you so I will not question it. I know you are looking down on us, but please continue to be the glue to the family. You may not be here in flesh but you're here in spirit. you are no longer hurting and I thank God for that. You will forever be missed and NEVER forgotten !! Watch over us love you abuelita! Diamond*

“ As the days go by I find it so hard to believe that you're really gone. I'm used to seeing you in the living room, greeting me with your beautiful smile, as I walk in. The house seems so empty without you. I feel empty without you but I know that you're in heaven. No more suffering, Mami. You truly gave me life for without you, I wouldn't be here today. You were always my greatest defender till the very end and for that I am eternally grateful. Gracias Mami por amarme tanto, a mi y a mis hijos, por todo lo que hicistes por mi y perdoname por los malos ratos que te hice pasar creciendo. Fuiste unica y como tu no habra otra. I miss you so much. Bendicion Mami.
Tu hija, Letty

“ Lamento mucho la pérdida de la Sra. Torres. Que Dios les conceda paz a medida que meditan en Su promesa de la resurrección (Juan 5:28,29; Hechos 24:15).
