“ Mom... i never wanted this day to come. The day I would no longer hear your sweet voice answer the phone when I call, I miss the way you cared for us all when we were sick and healthy. Your eyes always had love and concern in them. You loved everyone unselfishly and would give your last to help anyone. No perfectly articulate poem or expressive words can describe how much you meant to me, our family and so many other people. I miss you so dearly. Just waking up in the morning and knowing I won't see your beautiful face saying GoodMorning.... God Bless you. Or hearing your slippers melodically scoot through the house while I was sleeping. My heart aches for you. I know God had another plan for you and that was the reunite you with Dad, Granny and all of our family members and friends. You earned your wings, rest well Beautiful Mother. I love ❤️ you sooo much.
