Obituary for Carolyn Hope Hutto

Carolyn “Hope” Migliaccio (Hutto) leaves behind her beloved husband William Migliaccio and her son Trevor Zarnowiec, daughter-in-law Maxine Zarnowiec and grandsons Zachary and Mathew Zarnowiec. In addition, Hope leaves behind her aunt and uncle, Anna and Cecil West; and her cousins Ray and Robbie West. Hope had been battling breast cancer for over two years. She passed from this world on Valentine’s Day.

Carolyn went by her middle name “Hope” and she was fond of saying that she is her name.

Hope was an elementary school teacher for 39 years and she provided the hope of a brighter future to the many, many students who passed through her classroom. Her vocation was truly a labor of love and although she started her college days as music (voice) major she graduated with a Master’s Degree in Early Childhood Development. Hope has received numerous cards, letters and commemorative gifts from the grateful parents of her students.

In addition to children, Hope loved animals and her hobby for over twenty years was raising exotic cats, Himalayan Persians in particular. Hope was very artistic and she had a great eye for color. Her artistic expression included oil painting and flower arranging and a never ending love for singing. During the last two years of her life her interest returned to her roots and she grew and cared for a variety of ferns in her backyard shade-house built for her by her husband.

Hope lived her life as a warm, loving and giving person and her very last act on this world was to donate her corneas so that someone might receive new hope and the gift of sight. This was the true giving nature of this amazing and wonderful woman, teacher, friend, mother, grandmother, and wife.

She will be missed but never forgotten by all those whose life she touched and enriched.

“ When the enemy death strikes your grief can be great. It's never the right time to say goodbye to a loved one. Death too many seems to be a part of life. It's during times such as these that we can find comfort in the Lord's Prayer in Matthew 6:9, 10 ~ "Our Father in the heavens, let your name be sanctified. Let your kingdom come. Let your will take place, as in heaven, also upon earth". Only God's (Psalms 83:18) Kingdom can bring peace, happiness, perfect health, and everlasting life. “ My sincere condolences to the family of Ms. Hutto. There are a few things in life that hurts as much as the death of a loved one. But it is at these times that we turn to our Heavenly Father for comfort. He is described as "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort."-2 Cor 1:3,4. He comforts us with such scriptures as Acts 24:14,15, Rev 21:3,4, John 5:28,29. For more comfort from the Bible, please visit jw.org. Thanks!:)

“ To The Family, My thoughts and prayers go out to you during this very difficult time. Jesus Christ will soon take away our last enemy, death, and soon we will be able to welcome our loved ones back from death when he resurrects them to enjoy everlasting life on paradise earth. May you continue to draw comfort from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3).

“ Hope was a dear friend to me. She was more like a sister to me. I loved her dearly. I will miss her so much, but I have about 40 years of memory's in my heart that I will cherish. I am so glad she met Will and she finally got to feel what real love is like. Pat, my boyfriend got to be best man and me her bridesmaid at their wedding. It was a beautiful day that I will never forget. Hope was such a good and generous person. She will be a beautiful angel in heaven. She is probably already trying to take care of everybody else. Will I am so sorry for your loss but so thankful you had two years with Hope. I know you loved each other and you will carry that in your heart forever. To Trevor, I know your mother loved you and your sweet wife, Maxine and those two precious grandsons. Always think of all the good memories you have in your heart. To all the family and friends that had the pleasure of knowing Hope, We were all blessed to know her

“ To the family and friends, I am so sorry for your loss. God provides comfort in these difficult times through promises of hope for the future. A resurrection of all those in the memorial tombs, John 5:28,29, A time when no resident will say “I am sick”... Isaiah 33:24, and Rev 21:4 promises that mourning, pain, and even death will be no more. For now, hold on to your precious memories and may God bless all of you with peace.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss! In these times of deep sorrow God's word provides so much comfort. Revelation 21:4 promises a time when pain and sorrow will be of the past. I hope that it gives you as much comfort as it has me in these difficult times.
